

LGC INDEX 1982

GENERAL

Alice through the safety net, D. Adams, 1392
California dreamin', M. FitzGerald, 250
Education management, D. Patterson, 527
Financial planning . . . just like a wheel of fortune, R. Hedley, 400
How East Sussex has patched together a new and more sensible system of Social Services, S. Taylor, 1142
Leaping at a leisurely future, J. Burns, 422
Man who resigned over fares rumpus, R. Hedley, 98
Small is beautiful, C. Roddan, 402
Tapping the EEC's funds, C. Derby, 205
Wires crossed on finance and IT82, R. Hamm, 314
What I think of local government, M. Redfern, 496

COMPUTING

Cable in Britain: The local approach, F. Hall, 816
Cash receipting enters a new age, D. Holland, 134
Chance to win £3,000 - think about IT, The, D. Schartau, 162
Computer that's taking off, R. Nixon, 612
Direct labour accounting race is on to win seal of approval, C. Derby, 616
Familiarising yourself with IT, D. Jackson, 43
Giving credit the electronic way, R. Lord, 866
How micros are changing the shape of housing's future, K. Donaldson, 1172
How Salisbury is cashing in on a new receipting system from Plessey, M. Temple, 1370
ICL's social services package goes under the microscope, M. Phillips, 1283
Introducing a note of discipline into cash receipting, B. Bryant, 274
Is it just a big hype? R. Henderson, 1228
Jumping in the deep end, A. Tew, 212
Kingston presents Prestel to the people, G. Andrew, 238
Numbers game, M. Jacob, 1093
Nursery story with a happy ending, M. Phillips, 1040
Room to improve, D. Turner, 1014
Software selling, S. Church, 603
Stream of consciousness, C. Holtham, 1011
Survey of the latest installations, 606
Threat to data privacy, I. Robertson, 790
What IT's all about, B. Hart, 136
Woking BC backs a winner, B. Hind, 52
Word perfect, S. Blake, 1096
Which computer is which, 46
Word processing - Do you really need it? R. Wilshin, 307
Word processing - How do you install a word processor? R. Wilshin, 702
Word processing - How to operate an information processing system to serve managers, R. Wilshin, 844
Word processing - Just Bradford's type, C. Derby, 310
Word processing - LGC Survey, 301
Word processing - Staff appraisal, R. Wilshin, 552
Word processing - What the near future holds for developing effective office systems, R. Wilshin, 914
Word processing - Which word processor? R. Wilshin, 450

DEVELOPMENT FILE

Aiding the local economy, N. Waters, 1338
Airport that's taking off, J. Barber, 447
Councils encourage co-ops, R. Hedley, 154
How one slump-hit county is making its economy work, R. Gledhill, 986
On course for jobs, P. Andrews, 523
Reversing rural decline, D. Waring, 1204
Staffordshire isn't pottering about on the job front, B. Price, 868
Survival strategy, R. Barron, 1066

FINANCE

ADC 'targets' protest wide of the mark, D. Wardman, 1199
Adding up to a better understanding, T. Travers, 1394

Annual accounts: the message isn't getting through, B. Bucknall, 1288
Audit about to lose its liberty? D. Wardman, 36
Auditors, W. Werry, 103
Authorities' big sell . . . how they rate, B. Bucknall, 470
Behind the CIA, P. Kimmance, 398
Best of the annual accounts, B. Bucknall, 940
Big squeeze continued . . . T. Travers, 318
Budgets: showing a sense of style, B. Bucknall, 640
Capital controls cause public sector blushes, D. Wardman, 1339
Capital idea for boosting flagging finances, G. Jarvis, 1016
Capital ideas that have not worked out, K. Webster, 1262
Centenary challenge (look back over 100 years of RVA activity), B. Hill, 731
Centre covers housing options, J. Pipe, 1311
Clues for an audit inspector, D. Wardman, 159
Committee looks for support, D. Wardman, 1063
Cost of informing the public, K. Webster, 426
Counting the cost of new benefit scheme, D. Wardman, 870
Counting the cost of unification, D. Wardman, 187
Desperate rating measure, F. Othick, 985
Did Layfield ignore the solution? Pointing a better way to rating valuation, D. Magor, 818
Direct debiting pays, R. Lord, 962
DLOs laid bare for all to see, B. Bucknall, 841
Fairer systems - vs - local freedom, A. Jacobs, 762
Education - separate funding, J. Parkes, 584
Fair deal for local government? J. Whitecross, 1312
Finding a ceiling for spending, D. Wardman, 497
Fingers on the finance button, A. Jacobs, 108
Getting out of the tender trap, J. Pipe, 1367
Government's target practice: time to change the rules, M. Gilgallon & Alan Sumby, 1063
Green paper means go for rates reform, J. Grugeon, 131
Honesty and the best policy, K. Webster, 787
How the HRA slips into gear, K. Webster, 579
In search of the holy grail, M. Beasley, 80
Live now - pay later, R. Lord, 1146
Losing out because of industry, K. Webster, 336
Lottery law, S. Capon, 582
New year, new rules, new confusion, B. Bucknall, 18
Outsiders looking in, B. Bucknall, 137
Perils of tampering with local government finance, T. Travers, 104
Public sector finance . . . how Whitehall will 'help', T. Travers, 580
Putting their houses in order, B. Bucknall, 211
PWL variable interest loans frighten City, A. Jacobs, 916
Rate support grant preview, T. Travers, 1314
Real concern for rates paid by industry? K. Webster, 1010
Reform of present system may answer Tories' taxing question, B. Hill, 160
Report that could do better, D. Wardman, 556
Rhubarb to these cluster comparisons, K. Webster, 913
Room for both views, T. Du Sautoy, 38
RSG document - no comparison, T. Travers, 184
Search goes on regardless, K. Webster, 248
Second course more palatable than the first, B. Bucknall, 13
Six months in the city, J. Pipe, 454
Three views on value for money, B. Bucknall, 1037
Treating the ratepayers even handedly, K. Webster, 1391
Undercutting the transfer market, D. Wardman, 374
Under starter's orders in race against rates, K. Webster, 16
Vague sort of distinction, D. Wardman, 961
Who profits most from interest cuts? K. Webster, 1141
Why accounts are not up to standard, B. Bucknall, 1227
Why CIPFA must do more to develop its members' skills, M. Weaver, 1200

Why local government's defence proposals are on such dodgy ground, D. Wardman, 734

HOUSING

Arrears - only a minority problem, C. Schofield, 338
Authorities move on mobility idea, B. Affleck, 210
Peter McGurk interview, R. Hedley, 601
Rebuilding a housing councils credibility, F. Berry, 701
Re-inventing the wheel for tenants seeking a move, T. McBrearty, 893
Why two million will be worse off, P. McGurk, 642

INVESTMENT

Coining it for the brokers, R. Morton, 166
Crisis? What crisis? In the city, R. Morton, 669
Finding fund managers in-house, R. Morton, 1171
Identifying the right mood and moment, R. Morton, 894
Indices that are largely hit and myth, R. Morton, 1290
Investor's fortunes go up in smoke, R. Morton, 421
Keeping clear of cash, R. Morton, 339
Looking to the future, R. Morton, 54
Putting their trust in property, R. Morton, 530
Underwriting an authority's entitlement, R. Morton, 794

LAW

Act of gross complacency that is impossible to interpret, D. Hoath, 1308
Arbitration and the county courts, H.W. Clarke, 444
Can councils ban the hunt? R. Tracey, 982
Can parents interfere with education provision? R. Taylor, 1008
Council's duty to ensure a house has no defects, C. Cross, 1060
Council has liability even without a duty, C. Cross, 934
Dealing with a disaster fund, John Moore, 1119
Defining development for purposes of a court order, R. Jones, 1224
Do authorities take cash into account for planning applications? C. Cross, 1168
Documents and privilege: up to the judge's discretion, J. W. Clarke, 784
Finding common ground from which to fight future battles, J. Downs, 40
Four partners looking after the police, G. Tidswell, 520
Giving planning gain a bad name, J. Jowell, 155
Good year for the complaints industry, B. Harvey, 185
Greek gift for the anti-lorry lobby, C. Arnold-Baker, 298
Ground rules on tree root damage, H. Street, 268
How authorities can profit from the sale of their surplus assets, D. Monks, 1336
How lands tribunals rated last year, F. Othick, 1034
How public lending right will work in public libraries, R. Morris, 938
Knowing a thing or two about advocacy, L. Rogerson, 492
Law man who likes his job, R. Hedley, 1090
Law unto himself, C. Cross, 208
Lawyers listen to reason, C. Cross, 366
Legality of councils' decisions given new House of Lords safeguards, C. Cross, 1364
Legal right to look at local authority documents, H.W. Clarke, 756
Listed buildings are latest banana skin for authorities to slip on, C. Cross, 1280
Local government law takes a new course, J. Croxen, 664
Local government lawyer who's beaten the logjam, R. Hedley, 340
Local authorities licence for sex, J. Emms, 236
London fares, S. Marks, 138
Lordly attitudes to a legislative pot-pourri, H. Morgan, 862
Managing a charity, F. Courtney, 1196
Measure of controversy, J.F. Garner, 128
No going on the dole without just cause, J. Edmondson, 638
Power of the police, G. Tidswell, 418
Six months law (1), C. Cross, 106
Six months law (2), C. Cross, 839
Rights of termination, C. Cross, 472
Should local government afford the ombudsmen? D. Monks, 812

'The state of the local economy is a council's legitimate concern', I. Cartwright, 1252
Stronger than the average Bill, M. Holdsworth, 72
Sweeping change imposed on audit system, R. Jones, 886
Taking care of children, C. Cross, 574
Taking council policy for a ride, C. Cross, 10
Votes that do not count, C. Cross, 698
Who pays the rates when the family separates? G. Miller, 548
Why the courts keep facing a drainage problem, M. Scott, 728
Why judges are having the final say in public authority disputes, P. Johnson, 1388
Wild card of Local Government Finance Act, J. Elven, 910

MANPOWER

Auditors yearning for uniformity, A. Fowler, 700
Bill that will best be forgotten, C. Beever, 758
Campaigning for equality, M. Alexander, 1390
Comparisons that don't add up, A. Fowler, 1198
Costly reduction in hours, A. Fowler, 814
Countdown to confrontation, C. Beever, 42
Effectiveness a matter of judgment, A. Fowler, 960
Facts behind the rubbish, T. Neal, 932
Falling down on the organisation, D. Willey, 100
Getting employees involved, A. Fowler, 550
Instituting good training ideas, M. Rogers, 420
LACSAB: evidence of flaws, A. Fowler, 158
Leaving local government, S. Hardingham, 74
Life in the hot seats, R. Hedley, 786
Managing to put services first, C. Derby, 1316
Merits of merit pay, A. Fowler, 368
Most effective personnel management, C. Beever, 522
NALGO lines up its opposition, K. Sonnet, 246
NALGO on the defensive, S. Hardingham, 636
NALGO's political dilemma, C. Beever, 666
Officer swapping, B. Petty, 1203
Participation: make sure you know the rules, C. Beever, 1120
Pay formula negotiators can't ignore, A. Fowler, 1092
Questions for the interviewer, A. Fowler, 864
Ray Grove, S. Hardingham, 241
Right person for the job, C. Beever, 130
Ross - refuse collection, G. Corless, 576
Running the national asylum, C. Beever, 888
Sick pay saga takes turn for the worse, C. Beever, 984
Sick state of absence losses, A. Fowler, 271
Snags in the statistical equation, A. Fowler, 12
Staff appeals should be down graded, A. Fowler, 1310
Suffolk saving a quid each day, R. Harris, 244
Taking an independent line, C. Beever, 396
Ten years on from Bains, C. Beever, 214
Training - ICSA under examination, A. Chapman & B. Buck, 1038
Unemployment solution that might work, C. Beever, 1366
Using word processing power for personnel, J. Palmer, 912
Why I quit Lambeth, B. Murray, 842
Why Oldham's playing the game, S. Hardingham, 446
Why the bad press is unfair, J. Castleton, 726
Women in local government, J. Lovelace, 524
Womenpower: keeping clear of the tribunals, C. Beever, 1226
Wrong types of incentive, S. Hardingham, 759

PENSIONS

Benefiting from early retirement, J. Jolliffe, 364
Circular still doing the rounds, P. Taylor, 432
Compensation regulations reach statutes, P. Taylor, 828
Factors in remuneration calculations, P. Taylor, 1048
Fortunes of the pension funds, P. Taylor, 564
Influencing your pension rights, P. Taylor, 899
Opportunities to improve benefits, P. Taylor, 1156
Raising the payroll standard, P. Taylor, 88
Stick with the transfer system, P. Taylor, 1254
Superannuation contributions, P. Taylor, 216
Who says where the money goes? P. Taylor, 635

POLITICS

Agents of misfortune, M. Eastale, 578
Age old problem, G. Yewdall, 966
A look at the poll position, C. Rallings, & M. Thrasher, 476

Anti Climax, D. Adams, 618
Are computer budgets under strict control? D. Hender, 1102
Arguments that leak, D. Hender, 639
Big two find new hope, D. Peschek, 99
Breakdown in transport interpretation, D. Peschek, 79
Breaking the mould in local government, A. Glover, 1170
Chief executives must be more positive, A. Jacobs, 1282
Christian caring, F. Ward, 889
Comparatively speaking, G. Yewdall, 473
Conservative local government conference, D. Peschek, 294
Cosla complains of bureaucratic control, F. Horsburgh, 375
Cutler's way, C. Derby, 278
Cutting back on the future, D. Hender, 1346
Don't ignore economics, D. Hender, 865
Election year 1983: What the parties promise for local government, R. Hedley, 1372
Electoral law, B. Lawton, 500
Flaws in the privatisation argument - the Labour Party view, B. Turner, 1286
Forming a strategy, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1361
Fuse is LIT, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 441
Grounds for complaint, C. Derby, 705
Hanging together, D. Adams, 369
Hidden truth, D. Adams, 738
How to keep the chief informed, D. Hender, 1234
Lack of understanding, D. Adams, 1005
Local factor in a local election, G. Jones & John Stewart, 674
Look back and wonder, D. Peschek, 126
Making local government strong again, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 14
Managing to do better with MINIS, D. Adams, 1070
Minister's pride presages a fall for local government, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 75
Missing targets - Some truths about local government spending, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 782
Mistaken quest, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 551
No need for regional government, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1255

No power behind rate reform, D. Peschek, 33
Personnel problems, D. Hender, 397
Planning: back to the drawing board, M. Eastale, 1126
Police and accountability, D. Adams, 416
Politics rather than logic, D. Adams, 1202
Post election problems, D. Hender, 528
Putting the local government vote in proportion, V. Bogdanor, 1368
Reports of no consequence, D. Ashford, 815
Road to cheap fares, D. Blunkett, 448
SDP's worrying plans for regions, T. Travers, 918
Scotland's final solution, A. Jacobs, 344
The shotgun marriage - how it has misfired, A. Alexander, 696
Testing time begins . . . , A. Jacobs, 474
Three lies about local government, J. Stewart & G. Jones, 376
Time to standardise book-keeping, D. Hender, 1036
Transport going nowhere, D. Adams, 1315
Under-used MPs dabbling in local affairs, G. Jones & J. Stewart, 1145
Value judgments, D. Adams, 494
Voting a change, R. Jefferies, 792
Ways of transplanting US management ideas into local government, R. Hinton, 166
Why the EEC is so important to local government, R. Doble, 1176
Why three into one won't go (associations lobbying), A. Jacobs, 1344
Winners of the contract-out game, M. Forsyth, 988

PROFILE

John Clark, M. FitzGerald, 164
Nicky Harrison, M. FitzGerald, 890
Bernard Harty, M. FitzGerald, 1342
Brian Hill, M. FitzGerald, 1064
Peter Kimmance, M. FitzGerald, 266
Audrey Lees, M. FitzGerald, 1256
Lord Marshall, M. FitzGerald, 76
Jack Smart, M. FitzGerald, 498
Graham Speirs, M. FitzGerald, 672
John Stevenson, M. FitzGerald, 370
John Stewart & George Jones, M. FitzGerald, 1121
Harry Tee, M. FitzGerald, 760

In with the law . . .

LGC sets a legal precedent
for law news and expert
comment on new legislation

ORDER YOUR COPY TODAY
£25 for 12 months
£12.50 for 6 months

